Residence Lifeline

Final Exams

As the Spring semester quickly draws to a close, here are a few points to remember:

May 5th is the last day of classes. 24-hour quiet hours are in place during reading days and final exam week to ensure that the residence halls are conducive to studying and sleeping. 24-hour quiet hours will begin on Friday, May 5th at 11:59PM and will remain in effect through Saturday, May 13th. Each night, from 9:00PM until 9:30PM, a stress release break is permitted. Please do not abuse this opportunity to release a bit of stress and re-energize. Use good judgment and show consideration for others. Remember that all University policies remain in effect. Students will be held accountable (including, but not limited to, a mandatory fine) for excessive noise and other violations. If you have any questions regarding 24-hour quiet hours, please contact your Resident Advisor.

Departure The residence half

The residence halls close at 9:00PM on Friday, May 12th.

Special points of interest:

- Friday May 5th is both the last day of classes and the beginning of 24hour quiet hours.
- All Residence areas close on Friday, May 12th.
- Be sure to follow all check-out procedures with your RA.
- All damage inquiries must be received in writing by June 16th. Read your bill carefully!
- Return your room/ apartment key to an RA before leaving campus to avoid a $100 fine.

As you begin to pack and make travel arrangements for the end of the semester, please keep the following information in mind:

All students are expected to depart from campus within 24 hours of their last exam.

If your last exam is on Friday, May 12th, you must depart by 9PM that day. All campus residence areas will officially close on Friday, May 12th at 9PM.

If you need consideration to remain on-campus until 10AM on Saturday, May 13th, you must email us at Sean.Burke@wne.edu by 4:00PM on May 11th in order to request late departure.

Any student in housing without authorization after 9PM on Friday, May 12th will be assessed, at minimum, an automatic fine of $50.00 and may be required to depart immediately.

Please plan ahead and keep these dates and times in mind as you make your final travel arrangements. If you have any questions, please contact your Resident Advisor or the Office of Residence Life.

Summer Housing

Information about summer housing in Evergreen can be found on the Residence Life webpage under Break Housing. In order to be eligible for summer housing, you must meet one of the following criteria: 1) be enrolled in summer classes at WNE—2) be an international student—3) be a full-time campus employee over the summer—4) have a full-time internship over the summer. Applications are due by May 1st and can be found on the webpage.

Fall 2017 Housing

Be sure to complete all steps of the HMA-online housing selection process. You and your roommates (if you paid your housing verification payment on time) should be selecting a room between now and April 14th. If you are using the select a bed option, you must do so between April 15th and April 21st. Check your "my room" page on HMA to ensure that you are all set. You should see your room information and your roommate(s). You should also see your meal plan and estimated billing information. Contact Residence Life with questions and concerns. You must complete the process by April 21st to secure a room.

Change in Status?

If you are not planning to return to Western New England University for the Fall of 2017, you will need to schedule a complete exit interview. Please contact the Office of First Year Students and Students in Transition at ext. 1312.

Check-out Procedures

The check-out process consists of two steps:

- 1) Return your room key to a Resident Advisor before you depart from campus. Failure to return your room key before you depart from campus will result in an automatic assessment of a $100 fee to change the lock and prepare replacement keys. Key inventories are completed immediately after closing. Keys returned via mail after closing will not be accepted. If you cannot find an RA
- when you are leaving campus, return your key to Public Safety. They are open 24 hours.
- 2) Complete a room checkout with a Resident Advisor. This includes signing off on your room condition form. While important, this is a preliminary check by the RA. Building supervisors and Facilities Management will conduct a thorough inspection of all residence areas and their expertise may identify necessary repairs not evident to an RA at the time of your departure.

NOTE: Scheduled check-out times for your building/area will be posted on your RA's door and throughout your building/area. Staff is not expected to be available around the clock or without advance notice. Please be sure to plan ahead and check-out during the posted hours. If you are not able to check-out during the posted hours, please contact your RA in advance to set up an appointment.

Condition of Your Room/Suite/Apartment

To expedite the check-out process, your room should be thoroughly cleaned and restored to check-in condition before you can be checked-out by an RA. However, if you have reconfigured University furniture, such as a loft, you should keep it as you now have it arranged. Trash bags will be available from the Residence Life staff leading up to and during exam week. All personal property must be removed from your room/suite/ apartment. Items left behind will be discarded. Additionally, occupants will be charged a hauling/ removal fee for any furniture or belongings left behind. All trash should be taken to the nearest dumpster, with the exception of electronic devices. Do not pile items in the corridors, suites or courtyard areas or leave trash next to overflowing trash cans. If this occurs, all residents sharing the common area will be charged a littering/clean-up fee. In addition, we ask that you not dispose of electronics, or anything with a power cord, on campus. Electronic devices (most notably televisions) contain hazardous materials. We ask that you take your electronic devices home with you. Students who leave electronic devices behind will be subject to cleaning and disposal fees, as you would be with any trash or items left behind after you check-out. Additionally, if electronic items are found in a dumpster, and the student(s) responsible can be identified, that student or students will also be subject to fines for disposal.

Damage Assessment and Damage Deposits

If, upon receipt of your damage assessment letter, you wish to question any charge, your appeal must be presented, in writing, to the Office of Residence Life. The Office of Residence Life must receive your appeal by Friday, June 16, 2017. Please be sure to include details to support your appeal, your Spring semester hall and room number, your student ID number and an email address so that you may be contacted should we have any questions. We will not be able to respond to telephone inquiries regarding end of year billing. This process allows us to provide everyone with better service when it comes to end of year billing appeals. Be sure to pay attention to the appeal deadline, appeals received after June 16th may not receive a response. Unless a student has accepted full responsibility for damages and signed off as such on a damage responsibility form at the time of check-out, all repair/replacement costs are equally divided among roommates/suitemates.

Housing damage deposits are automatically refunded after the check-out process and damage billing has been completed by the Office of Residence Life. Deposits will only be refunded if you are continuing at the University as a commuter student, not returning to the University or graduating. In those circumstances, the refund to you will be less charges accrued. We strive to complete this process by mid-June.

Summer Storage

Limited storage space is available to students who live a significant distance from the University and are living on campus again for the Fall 2017 semester. Preference is given to international students. Students living within driving distance of the University may not be accommodated. Items are stored at the student's own risk. All items must be boxed and labeled. Furniture and perishables may not be stored. Contact Don Albrecht at ext. 5434 to set up an appointment for summer storage or if you have questions regarding summer storage.

Public Areas

Resident students are collectively responsible for all public areas of their community, such as corridors, stairwells, bathrooms, lounges, courtyards, etc. Group billing will occur for littering or damages in these areas, unless the individual responsible can be identified.

Mail Service

The Campus Post Office forwards first class mail to your home address. Second class mail (magazines, etc) will be forwarded at your expense. Third and fourth class mail (newspapers, etc) will not be forwarded. It is your responsibility to inform the Campus Post Office of any requests contrary to the above procedure. Change of address cards are available there as well. If you are graduating or not returning to the University, please return your mail box key directly to the Campus Post Office - not the Office of Residence Life or your RA - before you leave campus. Keep in mind that the Post Office is only open Monday-Friday during business hours. Students planning to leave on a weekend or at night must plan to return mailbox keys in advance. When applicable, the cost for an unreturned mailbox key will be billed to your account.
