******************************************************************************

Two-credit courses are scheduled for two-hour exams and, unless specified otherwise, all other courses exams are scheduled for three-hour exams.
A conflict in the examination schedule is defined as:

1. Two examinations simultaneously;
2. Two examinations in successive examination periods (including night-morning but excluding Saturday-Monday);
3. Two examinations on the same day;
4. Three examinations on three successive calendar days for part-time students employed full-time who certify that they cannot obtain time off during the examination period.
5. Four examinations on four consecutive calendar days unless the student has a reading period of four consecutive calendar days (or five-non-consecutive calendar days) between his or her last day of classes and the first of his or her four consecutive exams.

Or

6. Four examinations on four consecutive calendar days in any semester in which the exam schedule was not published by the end of the fifth day of classes.

ALL MAKE-UP EXAMS MUST BE TAKEN IN THE NEXT REGULARLY SCHEDULED EXAMINATION PERIOD THAT DOES NOT CREATE A CONFLICT. MAKE-UP EXAMS WILL BE GIVEN AT TIMES AND ROOMS ASSIGNED BY THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE. ROOM ASSIGNMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE. PLEASE CONFIRM ON THE DATE OF THE EXAM.

It is a violation of the Law School Honor Code to "acquire information concerning an examination or assignment without the instructor's authorization;" and/or to discuss any aspect of an examination or assignment that one has taken or is currently taking with any person who is currently or will later be taking the same examination or assignment, without the instructor's authorization." Honor Code §2.2(b)(91) and §2.2(b)(8).
