The Harvard Civil Rights-Civil Liberties Law Review is excited to welcome to campus so many leaders and activists doing incredible work on behalf of the transgender community. Many thanks to all of our panelists and organizers, and to our co-sponsors: Women's Law Association, American Constitution Society, Lambda, Prison Legal Assistance Project, Law Students for Reproductive Justice, Students for Inclusion, Supero, Queer and Trans People of Color, and Journal of Law and Gender.

Successes and Challenges at the Federal Level
10:20 - 11:40 AM
Student Orgs Room (WCC 2063)
Panelists discuss the need for federal legal protections for transgender people, and survey the current landscape, including the ADA's transgender exclusion, and recent Title VII and Title IX litigation. (Breakfast will be served).
Panelists: Jennifer Levi (GLAD, Transgender Rights Project Director), Scott Skinner-Thompson (NYU Law, Assistant Professor), Kevin Barry (Quinnipiac, Professor of Law), Kylar Broadus (Transgender Legal Defense & Education Fund, Senior Counsel)

Gender and Sexual Orientation Equality in the Law
12:00 - 12:50 PM
Griswold 110
Erwin Chemerinsky, Constitutional Law scholar and Dean of UC Irvine School of Law, will speak on the current struggle for transgender equality, situated in the legal history of the gender and sexual orientation rights movements. (Lunch will be served).

Protecting and Defending Transgender Rights in the States
1:10 - 2:30 PM
Griswold 110
Panelists discuss the progress and setbacks for the transgender community at the state level, including recent litigation surrounding bills excluding trans people from public single-sex spaces and rights for transgender prisoners.
Panelists: Gabriel Arkles (Northeastern Law, Associate Professor), Chinyere Ezie (EEOC, Trial Attorney), Ma'ayan Anafi (National Center for Transgender Equality, Policy Counsel)

Grassroots Activism in the Transgender Community
2:40 - 4:00 PM
Griswold 110
Panelists discuss the ways in which lawyers can support grassroots movements on behalf of the transgender community. (Insomnia cookies will be served).
Panelists: Carl Charles (NYC Commission on Human Rights, Staff Attorney), Mason Dunn (MA Transgender Political Coalition, Executive Director), Elle Hearns (Black Lives Matter, GetEqual)

Trans Grad Student Experiences
4:00 - 5:00 PM
Griswold 110
Transgender graduate students discuss their experiences and the existing barriers to equality in educational settings.
Panelists: Jamie Weinard (M.D., Boston University), Rachael Chase Stein (Harvard College), Audrey Stewart (M.B.A., Columbia University)