If a student has completed at least 30 credits, the student may earn academic credit in a program outside the Law School as follows:

Students may earn credit from other institutions pursuant to the terms of a combined degree program or an articulation agreement established between the School of Law and another institution. Non-JD courses at Western New England University: Students may earn no more than 6 credits by the successful completion of non-JD courses offered at Western New England University. To receive credit towards a law school degree, the student must: 1) Take an upper-level undergraduate or graduate level course(s); 2) Demonstrate that the graduate course(s) contribute to the student's education in law or particular professional interests; 3) Obtain prior, written approval from the course instructor and the Associate Academic Dean for Academic Affairs of the Law School; and 4) Enroll in and successfully complete the course(s) after matriculating in the JD program. See Academic Student Handbook Sec. 301 and 302.
