

Final Exams Already?

Well... not quite yet—but, it's right around the corner!

So NOW is the time to order a Final Exam Survival Kit for your student. It's a great way to show your support while they prepare for final exams!

The Parents Association at Western New England University is continuing the Survival Kit program in recognition of the many hours students spend getting ready for final exams.

Just send us your order along with your own personal message, and the Dean's Office will mail your student(s) a personal note just prior to final exam week, letting them know that a surprise from home is waiting for them at our office.

How easy is it?

1. Choose the kit(s)
2. Include your personal message
3. Remit and mail. Easy!

But remember:
