Report Comes to the Title IX Coordinator

Title IX Coordinator, in consultation with Deputy Title IX Coordinator(s), determine that the violation is not sexual assault or sexual violence but it may be a T9 violation and therefore appropriate for informal resolution.

Informal Resolution

Both parties agree (in writing)
- Assigned to one and/or two Review Officers for informal resolution.
- Final Outcome Letter (no appeal)

No agreement

Formal Resolution

Investigator submits investigative report with facts, factors, and conclusion of likely or not likely violation. Case and all documents reviewed by the Title IX Coordinator.

Investigation

More likely than not a Title IX violation did not occur.
- After conference with the Title IX Coordinator, parties are offered Informal Resolution (case cannot involve alleged sexual/dating/domestic violence)
- Both parties agree (in writing)
- Assigned to one/two Review Officers for informal resolution.
- Final Outcome Letter (no appeal)

No agreement

Complainant and Respondent have a right to appeal the sanctions/conclusions of the Review Officers.

More likely than not a Title IX violation occurred.
- 2 person, formal Administrative Educational Review. Review Officers come to a conclusion based on preponderance of the evidence standard and render sanctions.
- Both parties agree (in writing)
- Assigned to one/two Review Officers for informal resolution.
- Final Outcome Letter (no appeal)

Student Code of Conduct

Cases involving consideration of suspension or dismissal assigned to Hearing Officer or *AUDB within Administrative Educational

Respondent has right to appeal decision or sanctions if outcome is disciplinary probation or higher.

Cases involving less severe alleged violations assigned to Hearing Officer for review and decision.

KEY
- Possibility of Student Code of Conduct Violation
- Informal Resolution Process
- Formal Resolution Process
- Student Code of Conduct Process
- *AUDB All-University Disciplinary Board

8/16/2017